

Spring 2018

CCHS

Free and open to the public

www.historicalstudies.northwestern.edu

All events are held in Harris Hall room 108 unless otherwise noted

Joint CCHS/CAAH Distinguished lecture in African American History

Claude Clegg (University of North Carolina)

"Hope and Fury: Toward a History of African Americans during the Obama Years."

Thursday, April 12 at 4:30 p.m. Reception to follow

Gray Boyce Memorial Lecture in Medieval History, co-sponsored with the History Dept.

Joel Kaye (Barnard College)

"Recovering the World and its Workings: The Impact of a New Model of Balance on Medieval Thought, 1250-1350."

Thursday, April 19 at 4:30 p.m. Reception to follow

Graduate conference on "Resistance in History: From Transgression to Transformation."

Convened by Breen Fellow Bonnie Ernst

Keynote: Paul Ortiz (University of Florida)

Friday, April 20 – all day

Lynn Thomas (University of Washington)

"Consumer Culture and 'Black is Beautiful' in Apartheid South Africa and Early Postcolonial Kenya."

Tuesday, April 24 lunch lecture (12:15 to 1:50 p.m.)

Prasenjit Duara (Duke University)

"The Art of Convergent Comparison — China and India in Modern Times."

Tuesday, May 1 lunch lecture (12:15 to 1:50 p.m.)

Graduate conference on "Generations in History: Youth, Age and Metrics of Cultural Change."

Convened by Breen Fellow Emily Curtis Walters

Keynote: Sabine Frühsück (UC Santa Barbara)

Friday, May 11 – all day